

New Works by Rachel Hellmann

Rachel Hellmann
Swoon, 2023
Acrylic on paper
52h x 52w in

GALLERI URBANE

Rachel Hellmann
Optic Dim, 2023
Acrylic on paper
52h x 52w in

GALLERI URBANE

GALLERI URBANE

Rachel Hellmann
Apophenia, 2022
Acrylic on paper
35h x 35w in

GALLERI URBANE

Rachel Hellmann
Sixth Sense, 2022
Acrylic on paper
35h x 35w in

GALLERI URBANE

Rachel Hellmann
Hover, 2022
Acrylic on paper
35h x 35w in

GALLERI URBANE

Rachel Hellmann
Acumen, 2022
Acrylic on paper
35h x 35w in

GALLERI URBANE

Rachel Hellmann
Contour, 2022
Acrylic on paper
35h x 35w in

GALLERI URBANE

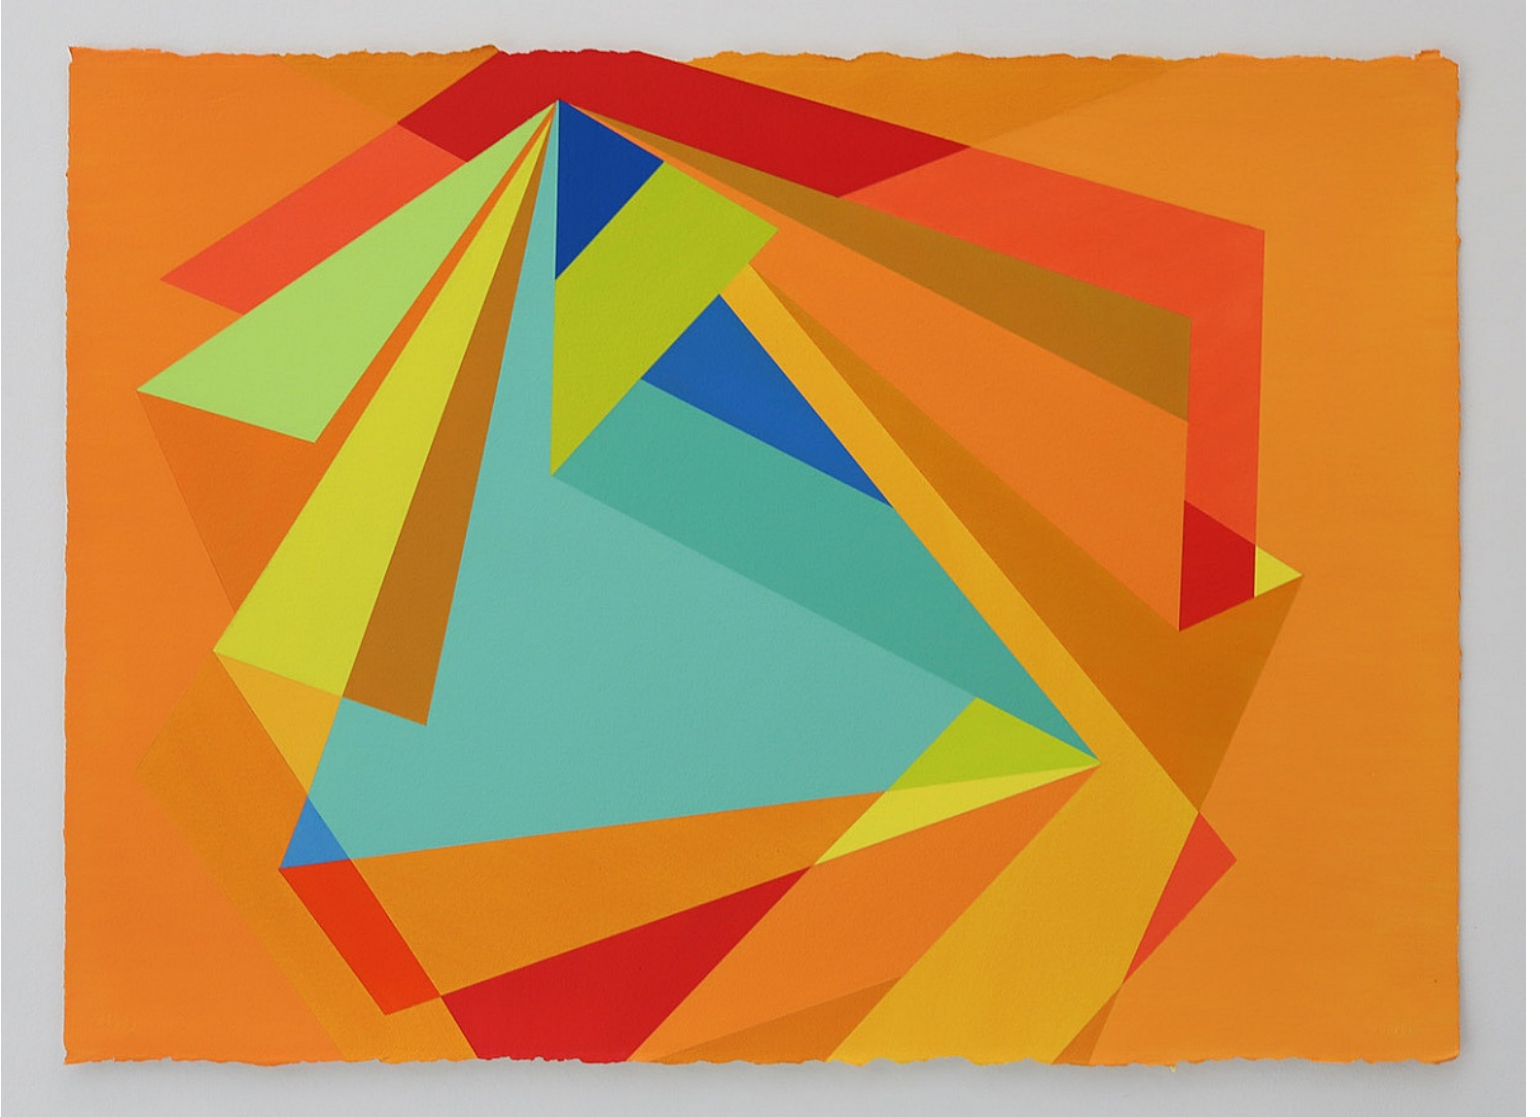

Rachel Hellmann
Viewpoint, 2022
Acrylic on paper
35h x 35w in

GALLERI URBANE

GALLERI URBANE

Rachel Hellmann
Flicker, 2021
Acrylic on paper
23h x 30w in

GALLERI URBANE

Rachel Hellmann
Carbon Copy, 2021
Acrylic on paper
23h x 30w in

GALLERI URBANE

Rachel Hellmann
Traverse, 2022
Acrylic on paper
23h x 30w in

GALLERI URBANE

GALLERI URBANE

Bio: Rachel Hellmann

Rachel Hellmann MFA, Painting, Boston University and BFA, University of Dayton. She has had solo exhibitions at Elizabeth Houston Gallery, NY, NY, Ellen Miller Gallery, Boston, MA, Saenger Galeria, Mexico City, Zillman Art Museum, Bangor, ME and the Addison Gallery of American Art, Andover, MA. Hellmann was the recipient of the Blanche E. Colman and Constatin Alajalov (Boston University) awards and residencies at the Ragdale Foundation in Forest Park, IL, Platte Clove Preserve, Catskills, NY, Playa in Eastern Oregon and the Corning Museum of Glass, Corning, NY. She was published in New American Paintings vol 113. Hellmann was Assistant Professor of Painting and Drawing at Northern Essex Community College from 2008 - 2013 when she relocated to Terre Haute, IN to work full-time as an artist. She taught at Mount Ida College, School of the Museum of Fine Arts and Bunker Hill Community College and has been a visiting artist at many colleges including: MassArt, Boston, MA; Dartmouth College; Whittier College; Ann Arundel Community College; Ball State University, and Rhode Island School of Design. Hellmann currently has a solo exhibition on view at the Rockwell Museum of Art in Corning, NY through March 2023.

